

Sony announced the on-line return during the week of the last unavailable services further to their hacking.

Unavailable since April 20th, Playstation Store will make its big return this week all over the world, and with it the famous program of compensation Welcome Back intended to compensate about 100 million concerned players by offering them games and free subscriptions to the PSN +. Also, countries having access to the service Music Unlimited de Qriocity can again reach all its features.

Kazuo Hirai, Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Sony, explains that «additional tries and complementary checks of security" were realized these last days, to assure an optimal protection on the on-line services of the firm.

Joomla SEO by AceSEF